JUST GOSSIP ABOUT PEOPLE

Saturday of Mid-August a Great Marrying Day. Mammoth Plans Are Under Way for the Sporting Carnival in September

Now that Niagara has broken up, most of the officers are getting married. At least it seems so, when you look at the number of weddings that are taking place today. Gifbert Mather, for instance, is marrying Gladys Earle today out in Bryn Mawr. Fitz Eugene Newbold and Eleanor Pepper are being married up in Northeast Harbor. Theobold Clark and Dorothy Nevin are very likely walking down the aisle now at "The Houlders" in Jamestown. Out in Germantown Chris tine Spencer is marrying Bob Hunter and Jean Lillie and Henry Wiley are being married at St. Mary's Church in Ardmore. Most of the bridegrooms have just received their commissions, so it is likely that the weddings present a very warlike appearance.

in the regular house abow oval next to nival will be held on what would other-will be directed by Stanley Reeve.

by Gabriela Tilghman.

rangements.

One of the features of the carnival, of September. Or around that date, if not exactly on it. Agnes is so pretty don't you think? And is always so well dressed. Their engagement was an nounced a little more than a year ago.

and with the trend of the war times I guess they have decided to be married at once. Agnes is the elder daughter of Mr.

Walnut street and Ardmore. Her brother,

Bert married Bessie Wheeler a few weeks ago, you remember. Emilie Rennedy is

DON'T you love the business heads some think this was a case of want of business head, however, I think 'twas just "the

A certain fascinating young lady who is the proud possessor of a bank account and also a thick crop of lustrous hair and very naughty eyes was called on the phone by an anxious father recently.

'My dear," he said, "there is a notice here from the bank that your account has been

"Oh," replied Nellie, "you pay it for me," and she hung up the phone. It's

TTHE sailors and soldiers are to go to

I Manheim again this Sunday afternoon

Really these parties are something like.

say the boys, for there's the pool to swim tennis and cricket. What a pity cricket is going out of favor! Time was when as many as 40,000 people would gather to watch the famous international matches

Baseball seems to have supplanted this more scientific game in the last few years, and though it is mighty exciting to watch it is certainly not so picturesque

Quite a number of women who have tesses. The indefatigable Mrs. Walter which were played in America.

fn and the grounds on which to play great to have a family to "pay it for you," overdrawn. This is very serious, now what will you do about it?"

women have? Incidentally, I don't is chairman of the horse show committee and Mrs. Robert E. Strawbeidge is the vice chairman. Entries may be made with St. George Bond at 1420 Chestnut The dos show will be held Friday, September 28, and will be directed by John Sinnett, assisted by Miss Ellen Hopkins. Entries close with Mr. Sinnott, The be bridesmuid for Gladys, you know, and for Jean Lillie, too. I should think she would have to dress in the car on the way either coming or going. And as far as that goes, I should think there would be a good many wrecks out on the Main Line, for Gladys and Jean have any number of mutual friends, and how they are all going to get away with both weddings is more than I can see at the present

MISS THEODORA KEITH LILLIE

Who is acting as maid of honor for her sister at her wedding today in St. Mary's Church, Ardmore.

DA WETHERILL is going to motor A down to Cape May today with Sarah | ward Browning and Mrs. John Barnes Hunter Kelley to stay for some time. Ada's fiance, Karl Knipe, is down there Others who have charge of various dein the Coast Reserve, you know.

Dick Harte is not the only one in his son, fancy table; Mrs. Edward Buchanan family who is getting married this week. | Cassatt, donations; Mrs. Edward Roberts His cousin, Elise Ames, of Boston, was married today to William Amory Parker. Her sister Olive was the maid of honor and Francis Brooks, of Boston, was best

ND now we turn our attention to the A sporting Carnival which they are going to have out on the Bryn Mawr polo grounds on September 28 and 29. circus than anything else, will be drills Mrs. Archibald Barklie, who is chairman of the whole performance, has told me all taking charge of the soft-drink departabout it, and I'll pass it on to you. The | ment Mrs. Walter S. Thomson is marbeneficiaries of the affair will be the Main Line Branch No. 1, which has its headquarters at Bryn Mawr; Wayne Branch, with headquarters at Wayne; Paoli Branch and Valley Forge Branch. All of these organizations, together with An auxiliary which was organized among the residents in the vicinity of the Mather estate at Brandywine by Dorothy Mather and which is an auxiliary of Main Line Branch No. 1, are taking part in the offair and working for its success.

Mrs. Barklie will be assisted by a group of able women, who will have charge of and Mrs. Albert Edward Kennedy, of 2203 the various departments. Mrs. William J. Clothier, of Wynnewood, is vice chairman; Mrs. Adolph Rosengarten, secretary Miss Ellen S. Hopkins, of Devon assistant secretary, and W. Hinckle Smith. treasurer.

The heads of the various branches in clude Mrs. Chariton Yarnall, chairman. and Mrs. Alexander Brown, vice chairman, Main Line Branch No. 1; Mrs. Wil liam S. Brooks, St. Davids, chairman Wayne, Mrs. Mason Liste, chairman, and Mrs. Edward Roberts, vice chairman, Paoli Branch, and Mrs. William C. Wilson, of King of Prussia, chairman. Valley Forge. Miss Mather is chairman of the Brandywine Auxiliary.

Every town on the Main Line from Merion to Paoli is interested in the car-Rival and will be represented in many ways. The big night feature of the affair both on Friday and Saturday nights will be a pageant, in which it is expected that every town will be represented by some particular float or tableaux. Valley Forge, with its historical associations. will present a taxleau which will be timely in its patriotic appeal. Besides those who constitute the heads of the various departments, several other well-known women have pledged their bervices and are members of the general committee. They include Mrs. Henry Earnshaw, Mrs. Stanley Reeve, Mrs. George McFadden, Mrs. Kearsley Mitchell, 3d, Mrs. Franklin McFadden, Mrs. Charles Randolph Snowden, Mrs. Henry Pepper Vaux, Mrs. T. T. Watson and Mrs.

Robert Lesley. as cricket. The principal departments of the fete stayed home this summer to do Red Cross will be a horse show, dog show, hound work will be on hand tomorrow to act as now, moving pictures, restaurant, dance on, baby show, rummage sale, midand lunch counter. There will be

MANY WEDDINGS TODAY OF RETURNED OFFICERS

Ningara Students Use Two Weeks Leave for Hontymoons

It is interesting to see the number of weddings taking place today in which the Most of these from he a newly commissioned officer of them will have just time enough short honeymean before they are sent for a short honeym to other training chings

NEWBOLD-PEPPER

The wedding of Mins Charletts Eleanor Pepper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Wharton Pepper, and Mr. Fitz Engeue New-told, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Emlen Newbold, took place this atternson at 4 an o'clock at Sumer Lodge, the summer bours of Miss. Penpera parents in North East. o'clock at Sunset Lodge, the summer hours of Miss Fepper's parents in North East Harbor, Me. The bride, who was gowned in white satin, was given in mittrings to her father. The matron of hotor was her sister, Mrs. Theodore S. Paul, and the bridesmaids were Miss Durethy Emlan Nexhold a sister of the bridegroom; Miss Jean Northald Thomas at Miss Jean Northald Newbold, a sister of the bridegroom, Miss Jean Newbold Thompson, Miss Mary Dixon Thayer, Miss Cornella Leidy, Miss Sarah Nellson, Miss Frances Wharton Scatt, Miss Gainer Owen Baird, Miss Margaret W. Harris, Miss Virginin Roberts and Miss Elizabeth Cushman, of Aleany. The flower Circle and Miss Filiabeth Cushman, of Aleany. The flower of the Miss Miss Miss Reposition of Aleany. girl was Mess Rita Krumbbaur, a nices of

The wedding will be attended by the im-

MATHER-PARKE

The solding of Miss Glody. Mario, that? He's got nothin' in hold 'en me Wiss, issuance of Mr. and Mr. Glosert Mather, en er Mr. It's spinor, deschared Mr. Glosert Mather, en er Mr. It's my spinor, deschared McGrath, that and Mr. Charles F. Mather, of Avonuesal the job goes to Thorne? Sourt, Haverford, took place from after. Mixing read the first page of the Morning been at 4:20 nelses at the home of the Mail with care. After a white he read indices parents, Bread Acres in Bryn. "I guess you're right. Thorns will be ride's parents, Brand Arms, in Bryn Inwr Miss Farle was given in marriage the next Senator, and right Many the s her father, and the common was percurred by the Res George Calvert Carter, exter of the Emiscopal Church of the Releamer, in Hryn Mawt
The bride wate while embroidered chif-

The bride score while embrasidered chilffon over while satin and curried a shower houghet of white needed and diles of the valley. Miss Louisa t'. Newlin, who was the maid of honor, wore a gown of pale him chiffon, with a large him chiffon hat, and carried blue hydrangens and pula gladielas. The three bridenmaids, Miss Shire Earle, a silver of the bride wint
There's makedy at that there deer Well-rain reposed to the door and created caith Early, a citter of the body; to wrighty Mather, a sister of the bridgers and Mrs. Joseph Patters n. 2d. another tater of the bridge rose blue chiffor rocks, with hats to make and carried the flowers. The little flower girl. Mass wited a bashet of blue testronicus and nk gladfolas. Mr. Weter C. Mather was bills brother's best man, and the delected were Mr. Hallowell V. Morgan, Mr. Richard Marshall, Mr. Joseph M. Patterson, Ed. Mr. George H. Earle, 28t Mr. Ralen Earle, both brothers of the bride, and Mr. William Coultran, Jr. Only the Immediate families targer exhibition. Mrs. David B. Sharp ers present at the wedding and there was a reception. Mrs. Mather will live near Fort Niagara, where Mr. Mather, who has hound show will be an exhibition of some daughter of Mr. and Mr. Lewis Lillie, of Briarwood, Haverford, and Mr. Henry Wood Wiley, son of Captain Henry Wiley, U. S. of the famous hunting packs on the Main Line and other nearby hunt clubs and The moving picture department will be managed by Mrs. Harry Waln Harrison and Mrs. Robert Montgomery. Mrs. John C. Groome and Mrs. Charles Custis Haras maid of bonor, and the bridesmaids were Most Roborta Wiley and Miss Elizabeth Wiley, of Washington, sisters of the briderison, Jr., will have the restaurant. Mrs. Paul Denekla Mills will direct the mid-Miss Edith Earle, Miss Katherine way. Tobacco, cigarettes and other smokes will be sold by Mrs. Henry Diss- Frank Roberts. Mr. Donald Lincoln, of ten and her aides. Mrs. Beau Thomson eland, was Mr. Wiley's best man, and ushers were Mr. William Fillebrown, will have soft drinks. Frances Sullivan Mr. Horace Wyman, of Worcester, Mass. will be assisted at the dancing pavilion Mr. Philip P. Smith, and Mr. Henry Austin. Smith, Dr. Howard Austin

The bride was gowned in white satin-The vaudeville show, another large feawith a train of duchers lace, and carried a houquet of white orchids and lilles of the ture, will be directed by Miss Anne Thomson and Mrs. John B. Thayer. Mrs. Ed-The maid of honor were blue or Townsend will have the flower booth. and carried pink and blue flowers. The wedding was followed by a small reception at the home of the bride's parents in Mayer partments include Mrs. William C. Wil-

HUNTER-SPENCER

and Mrs. William P. Morris, candy and cake; Mrs. William S. Ellis, tickets; Mrs. of Miss Christine Spencer, daughter of Mrs. Graham Spencer, of 218 Clivedon avenue, Germantown, to Lieutenant Robert Hunter. Clothler, printing; Mrs. Thomas Newhall. rummage; Mrs. Emory McMichael, fish thich took place at 1:30 o'clock this after son. The wedding, although a quiet one pond; William Struthers Ellis, police and gate, and Mrs. Clothler, grounds and artook on a military air. in marriage by her brother, Mr. Arwhich is to be more like a big country eatin veiled in old family lace. Her tulle veil had a corotet of lace, fastened with brange blossoms, and she carried a prayer by Girl and Boy Scouts. In addition to Miss Anne Howard Spencer, the bride's sister, was maid of honor. She a charming freek of white organdie with a hat and parasol to shaling the debutantes who will act as match. Mr. Paul II Hunter was best man, and the ushers were Lieutenant Charles A. Potter, Jr., of New York: Mr. Edward Potter, Jr., of New York: Mr. Edward Davis, Mr. Robert Gamble, and Mr. Foster T HEAR that Agnes Kennedy and Caspar Williams, of Baltimore. I Townsend are to be married the first Only the immediate families attended. A

STILZ-PENNOCK

A quiet wedding will take place today Miss Dorothy Pennock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Pennock, of Harvey street, Germaniawn, will become the bride of Lieutenant Wallace Childs Stilz, U. S. B. se home of the bride's parents and will be performed by the Rev Edward Ninde, min-ister of the First Methodist Episcopal hurch in Germantown. The bride will be a attended by Miss Amanda Stakes as maid of honor

CRAIG-WILLIAMS

A very pretty military wedding was relerated in Tinga seaterday afternoon at the brids's residence, 3435 North Sydenhar dreet, when Man Erma S Williams young est daughter of Mr and Mrs Charles Willey Earls Craig, U.S. R. oldest son of Mr and Mrs. David G. Craig, of 3716 North strenth street. The bride, attired in gray taffeta, was given away by her father, and of Ruttery D. Secc. Clarence Williams, of E Lieutenant Craig received his commission after training at the officers' reserve camp at Fort Niagars, and was one of the few to obtain a commission without having had

BRIDESBURG PEOPLE TAKE VACATIONS NOW

previous military training

New York Soldiers Guarding the Arsenal at Frankford

Miss Grace Morgan left on Saturday to spend some time as the guest of Mr. an Mrs. Risley at the Ardmore. Atlantic City.

Dr. C. W. Judd and Dr. Frank Swarz reported last week at Fort Oglethorpe, Ga. Both doctors have received commissions as lieutenants. Mrs. C. W. Judd has closed her home on Richmond street and is now with her parents in Baitmore, where she will reside until Dr. Judd returns. Companies D and E were replaced by Company I. Forty-seventh Regiment, New York, to guard the Frankford Arsenal. The Forty-seventh boys are quite pleased with the comforts of the arsenal after five months in a forest village, forty miles from nowhere, called Yaphank. ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED Mr. and Mrs. John F. Cronin, of 6331 or, and are retrook avenue, Overbrook, annetince the agement of their daughter, Miss Mar-get Marie Cronin, to Mr. Joseph P. Tr. of this city, Mr. Creamer

AT THE MOTHERS' CLUB

Imported Speaker-And children should never be allowed to play

The Red Mouse

A Story of Love, Jealousy and Politics By WILLIAM HAMILTON OSBORNE

"State finds all he's dolor. But what of thick The's got method to hook earner Will." The's got method to hook earner Will.

who knew Challener especially well time the hospital introduction, board low, and

"He's expected any numerit," and Mix-y from across the room. "We'll wall," chommed the three visitors. Medicath bowed again and went back to in seal near the window.

Margatroyd suddenly entered.

"Billy, I——"
At the sound of his name Morgatraed turned. He had not seen them sitting there, and now bowel impersonally to all tore."
"Want to see not?" by impured marriy, "Yes," failered Challorer; and with a quick glance in the direction of the prosecutor's men, he added, "and alone, necessity."

Murgatrord turned to his men and in-'Anything new?' Mixley pointed to the Morning Mail and an unopened telegram upon the desk. That, from the Assembly," he returned Murgatroyd shook his head, saying

"Tee!" he exclaimed: "we was so excited that this here that we clean forgot about

Murgatroyd took from his drawer a undle of papers and handed it to Mixley,

"Look up that 'excise violation-right away. And, McGrath," he continued, "there ire three witnesses in the Tannenbaum cass that we've got to have. It's up to you to get them. If you can't find them by 2 o'clock, let me know. You may go."

And now, seating himself at his desk.

Murgatroyd turned to Challoner with: Challoner advanced quickly toward the Prosecutor Murgatroyd," be began, gulping "it's up to you to clear me of that Har-graves affair. I'm not the murderer of Miriam and Shirley had risen, but they did not move; they hung on the prosecutor'

Murgatroyd leaned back in his chair, and

You know it? gasped the three visitors; and the next moment the women were ouped about the presecutor's deak.

Murgatroyd proceeded to open his mail. he mused. 'I have known it for dmost five years-you must have known it "Not until a few hours ago." Challoner quickly informed him.

"You don't say so," was Murgatroyd's answer; and presently be added, "though perhaps it is not so very surprising ('hulloner's eyes narrowed; his pulse was eating fast. Suddenly he said:

Rut somebody killed Hargraves-who The propecutor looked at the man incred-

"Do you mean to tell me, that though you now now that you didn't kill Hargreye. that you don't know who DID kill him? 'I'm here to find out," was Challoner. termined answer.

"Why, thunderation!" ejaculated Murga noved; and looking the other squarely in he eyes he would on: "I knew that every-ody didn't know, but I thought you knew ng ago that it was Peninican of Cradle-

"Penimican," repeated Chaffoner, as if to innself, "was the only man who knew, and assented Murgatrovit, The billed Court of Appeals filed its opinion of affirmance in your case. It was a gam his part, that murder. He had stolen his part that marker he had above the thousand dollars from the management of cratilebaugh's and had been threatened with proceedings for it. It was necessary for him to replace the money. The opportunity came and he selzed it. He knew that there was bad blood between you and Hargraven; knew that there was a notice on your part, knew that you shot and missed; graves: knew that there was a motive of your part, knew that you shot and missed; knew that Hargayes had a lot of money on his person, and he set out to get it. It was safe—he got it, and Hargayes, too—shot him dead with another guin—after you placed him-and paid back the money dlebaugh's Miriam could not restrain herself, and

And you have known this for years?" dering over Minim's face; "but it's plain to me now that you haven't known it."

"How should we" protested Challoner. Murgatroyd frowned, then he answered:
"How? Because I advised your cound. Thorne, and he was present when the order releasing you was signed. It was his futy, not mine, to communicate represented the people; he was the counfor the defer

"Thorne-Thorne knew . . . " cried

Touristy be didn't dare," explained Starsafrowd, with an enginetical smile. Just at that time, Thorne and Florine's troud both the public in the bollow of their bands to perform be added sureactions. The second both the public in the bollow of their bands to perform be added sureactions. The public ground was allowed on the public group."

And you make in Society her eyes duching but a tro turber, for Murgalited went on addressing Challotter I find the troubbe them, of course, in atting you from fire first bhoting an obe excludined

"It was not you who set him tace." The aw not him free." He was imposent, ad ... who happed and draw a deep teath before given in ... You task a mil-low stating to set him free."

Sire, Challener, he said with areat ear been made against me; once at the trial and again hore. You understand the na-

Slarley pointed to Challener's wife and Mrs. Challoner is my proof," Murgatroyd turned his suze now on Mirlam, whose expression of loy had not barried, and noked; "Sira Challoner, do you renew thin

But before Mrs. Chulloner could answer

"Presecutor Murpatroyd, a moment please." And on the procedure's turning s gaze on her, she continued: "You know am speaking the truth." Mrs. Challoner No. I don't mean that I mean in the on do what my opinion is on the sub-l told you in the courtroom what ought, and again on another occasion—I ave not changed. No, you are not honest," he concluded merclesoly; "you've stolen,

She balked at the word. The next mo-nent there came a loud knock upon the

"Come in!" called Murgatreyd. "Sorry to interrupt you. Mr. Prosecutor, aid Mixley on entering, "but Mr. Thorne i Murgatrord shook his head.

"Tell Mr Thorne I'm busy."
But no seemer had Mixley left the room than he was back again.

"Younselor Thorns says that he must see you he won't wait."

"I can't see him?" On Mixley's retreating, Shirley offce mocoped forward, and her lim were parter en violently and Thorne stalked in. hind him came Mixley, trying to hold him back; but the other lerked himself free, and on reaching the prosecutor's deak he u.bl out his hand and called out loudly

"SENATOR MURGATROYD!" "W-what?" exclaimed Murgatroyd, rising

And he proceeded to tell Murgatroyd that latter had just been chosen on joint of, majority in both houses, for the Allow me-allow me to congratulate Itis voice rang true, even though he did mean it; and Murgatroyd shook his at up a good fight."

Now Metrath, as usual, had followed one on the feedsteps of Mixfey; and stand-in the door, he yelled Three cheers for Senator Murgatroyd

And Mixley and Thorne born and bred political meetings gave them with a all; while Shirley and the Challengers sat the corner in deep stieries. Murgatroyd looked at his men to sur-

Where have you been all this time?" be Margatrand atrade down upon them and

You get that evidence and have it here two o'clock."
The man piled out in confusion. A moolding out his hand, repeated

"Accept my congratulations ome more, senator". He turned to go, and then for the first time be saw the three nersons haddled together in the corner of the room. Well," he suddenly exclaimed. I thought va were alone. Challoner stepped out in front of him and

"Mr. Thorne, I wish to know if it is Thorne, still not seeing who it was, nodded. "Yes," he said in cepty. "the presecutor s been chosen—I'm down and out."
"You don't understand," returned Chal-

True " repeated Thorne "True repeated thorne "True that you have known all these cears that I was innocent of murder?" and "haltoner squared his shoulders and lifted his head while be waited for his reply. "Yes, of course, it's true," an Thorne, seeing, at tast, whom he fac-

oner, "is il frue, tru

You never told me," flercely returned Thorne apparently was dumfounded Why I must have told Never told you? "You never—" Challoner's voice suddenly "And I thought all these years-and because I thought-He paused abruptly. Then Thorne, turn-ing to Murgatroyd, boldly equivocated: "It's preposterous! Of course, I told Murgatroyd smiled grimly and added ently to himself; "Never-till now Thorne now waved Challoner aside, say-You must be mistaken, Mr. Challoner;

I cortainly told you—" And picking up his hat, once more turned his attention to the ips than Shirley, almost beside herself, sgain broke forth;

"A clean, honest fight! Oh!"
Murgatroyd resumed his seat, amiling.
"Yes," he said, as if wholly unconscious of the girl's irony, "It is hard work to be chosen Senator without half a million or so belief yes."

Up to this time, Shirley had held her inat all control over herself.

"Why you—you're a third?" she cried. Instantly Mrs. Challener stepped forward, and raising a repreying hand, she said with great determination: No. to, Shirley, I won't have you say such things. You must leave the room! You and Laurin I insist upon H?" "Vers well," assented Shirley, "we'll wait outside, but don't keep us waiting long."

And as reluctantly she left the room with Challenger, she paid in a fould whisper so that thirgarrays could hear it. "What on earth can Mirtam want to see him alone For answer, Challoner merely shook his trived permussion to lock the door; and al-though surprised at such a request, Murga-trovd went over in the door and locked it asked severely:

Mrs. Civillaner, what do you mean by this? Do you recall the compact made hearly my years ago?" that showed plainly her desire to conciliate

Your husband went free," Murgatrovil actioned, "and when we made our com-act, we did not know whether he was in

Yes, yes, I know," the returned engerly, "What do you want of me?" he broke in

(Convents by Food, Mond & Ct.) (CONTINUED MONDAY

CATHOLICS ENTERTAIN SOLDIERS AND SAILORS

Young Men's National Union Gives Smoker, Attended by Delegates to Convention

The activities of the forty-third annual overified of the Catholic Young Men's Na-onal Lolon, which will begin its business scious text Wednesday, opened with a in-"mat-together" meeting in the Park emolor given had night for delegates ar-terial early for the convention in the au-sterium of the Parkway Building. The uniterium was filled.

The union, which has about 200,000 mem bers in this country, will send about 1200 delegates for the convention here. One of a mest important subjects for discussion ad decision at the convention will be the oral care and cotestaloment of the fightor men of the United States.

Representatives from Pittsburgh, New ork, New Orleans, Louisville, Detroit and unfalo attended the emsker. William H. Weber, of the Shanahan Cub, was muster of ceremonies. Among the entertainers were James McCool and Joseph Redly, of the Philopatrian Minstrels; Joseph Hughes, of the Aquinas Club; John Meintyre, of the Archbishop Ryan Association: Harry Con-nelly and Michael Flynn, of St. Elizabeth's Catholic Club; Frank Doorley, of the Vic-ris Club; Walter Costello and Edward Keough, of the Cabill Cab, and Joseph F. Dailey and Charles Higgins, of the Shan-meet of the union and the twenty-fifth an-nual field day of the Archdiocesan Union will be held on the Northeast High School's financial newspapers in the country, has been purchased by Russell E. Whitman, the managing director of the audit bureau of

Whitman Buys N. Y. Commercial

TODAY'S MARRIAGE LICENSES Hancherr, 4218 Franklin et, and Han-A Licetich 2503 Lovichee at, Emmarchan Amyric Pa and Mabel mutuol, Dichladd, Pa Winderlein, Camben, and Neille Sever. n. aron. 313 Richmond st., and Lina 1301 N. 54th at and Tillie treday ave. and an Juniper and Spring at 1917 Shamekin at, and Heten and Greene Mt., and Margare iels Wharton Mr. and Jessi illings, 1845 Wharfon St., and Jesse 1945 Wharfon St., and Lad-elmia, 247 New Market St., and Lad-Jatvijke 947 New Market St., and Lad-Jatvijke 947 New Market St., and St., and Pearling Sims. et. 4615 Nice St. and Margaret odd: Relfield ave. am 2130 S. 19th st., and Martia 2130 S. 19th st., and compatt, 2816 N. 5th st., and new torse Prantillo st. shrim. Hotel Vendig, and Nelite Chishidii, Hotel New York (118) Roares 526 N Pranklin at., and di, 1112 Berka 81 Gates, Sci. Leland st., and Margaret Airy ger tota W. Lehigh ave. and tendechels, Lansdele. 531 Online et., and Anna Gan. et. Mt. Airr, and Kathern Beille.

olicphane, san U. Durill, Jr. 2311 N. 29th et. and oma Ling. 1941 Lawrence at. and Katin Ler & English Monoston, Pa. and Katin Lier, Makertown, Va. and Lulius Foster, and J. Clawford, Olicy, and Lulius Foster, and and Lewis, 229 Ritteniums et., and Lina, 15 226 Ritteniums et., and Lina, 15 R. Marchingas, et E. Macricon, 1014 Franklin at. and School, 2022 Read of Units, Fort Washington, and Matten Hattere, Pa.

Belmont Concerts

Two concerts will be given today at Bel-mont Mansion by the Fairmount Fack Rand, Richard Schmidt, bandmaster, Programs, 4 To 6 O'CLOCK ferture. Termerand The Lave Take Information. Forget Me Nor Manbeth Proof Toddy After Artical Proof Extrapel The Holl of Paner Extrapel Termerand The Holl of Paner Extrapel Termerand Description Ter

Spanish Dance Mesticowsky wate. Military Control of the Day Rembrk S TO IN O'CLOCK

Destruce 1812 To IN O'CLOCK

Destruce 1812 To IN O'CLOCK

The work is descriptive of Napoleon a attack on Moscow. Both the French i Marseilates I and the Hassian huma are introduced and eluberated upon as is an old Russian chan, which forms the opening and is hard again when the ringing of the hells and the reports of surnon amounte the victory of the Russians.

Indian Eummer More China Connection of China China Control China China

Descriptive Fantagie. "The Forge in the I cett Michaella
Centralto Selo Ceriasima Fena
Edna Wallace Kinney Waldteufal
Waltz Tres Jolle
Waldelies from The Dollar Princess Fail
Star Spangled Bauner Fail

Concerts at Hunting Park Two concerts will be given today at Hunt-ing Park by the Energetic Band, Arthur Resender, conductor. Programs:

4 TO 8 O'CLOCK "America" Sami verture Morning Noon and Night Oriental Trot. "Ching Chong" Intermento. "Kases" Valse Colestia Musical Segmes from "Spain" Water Lillies" St Vocal Solo, by Epaneis Smith, Medley of Familiar Song Hils.

March, "Boy Stouts of America" Overture "Queen for a Day".
"A Basket of Rossas Trombone Solo, "Pella di Concer
Tay Weaver,
Valse il Concert, "The Institute

FAIL TO SEE PRESIDEN ABOUT NONCOMBATAN

Friends' Committee Retur From Washington Without In formation on Ruling on Conscientious Objectors

Dr. Rufun M. Jones, head of the America Friends' Emergency Service Committee and L. Hollingsworth Wood, acting head of the Haverford College reconstruction unit have returned from Washington after a unsuccessful attempt to see President Wil way and get an interpretation of his rulin unsuccessful attempt to see President wusern and get an interpretation of his ruling that "conscientious objectors" will be user.

or came back without information wh will enable them to inform inquiring ind siduals as to what their, duties will be a the camps. It was denied yesterday Haverford College that the Friends, as an organization, will attempt to influence the decision of the President or Government with regard to the kind of work their men bers will be given. This, it was said, will be left to the individuals. Only six of the 100 men who are prepar-ng for work of reconstruction in France are subject to draft in the first call, it has seen learned, and it is thought they will able to get exemption on this ground, tous acted upon as soon as possible in order those acted upon as soon as pensible in order to accompany the unit when it leaves here about September 1.

It was raid at the college that Doctor Jones and Mr. Wood had made their visit to Washington principally to have arrangements for the transport of the unit arranged, but that they had called upon Mr. Turnulty with the hope of seeing President Wilson about the standing of Friends in the cautooments as well, so they could inthe cautonments as well, so they could in form any of their members who may make opt the Pope's peace plans by members of the Philadelphila Yearly Meeting of Friends. The appeal to the President was made in he form of a message sent after a meeting a the Provident Life and Trust Building. Afred G. Scattergood, who drafted it, said hat the Pope's offer provides a chance to safeguard the liberalism of nations and that

FRIENDS URGE PRESIDENT TO HEED POPE'S APPEAL

"Weodraw Wilson, President, Washing-ton, D. C.: We urge thee to embrace the great opportunity presented by the Pope's memage. Although it does not attempt to not forth detailed and final terms, it at least affords a firm and hopeful basis, in harmony with thy address of First Month Eld for beginning regotiations leading to permittent peace. We firmly believe that the growing desire to punish Germany, been of a revengeful spirit, should be subor-dinated to the opportunity here offered to Pairmount Park Band, Belmont Mansion, Energetic Band, Hunting Park, & o'clock.

Municipal Band, Cornellus Park, Frank Indian Queen Athletic Club Carnival,

Morris street between Penn street Queen lane, 8 o'clock. Free, Catholic Young Men's National Union

RELIGIOUS NOTICES

CHESTALT STREET BAPTIST CHURCH

Prestoterian

BETHANY PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

DETHANY ERESEVIERIAN CHURCH
22d and Rambridge sits
Rev. GFORGE Y. PENTECOST. D. D.
Lt. D. Paster
10 15 a.m.—Brotherhood Meeting.
10 36 a.m.—Sermen by Rev. W. Edward Jordan. Assistant Pater
2 00 p. m.—The Bethamy Sunday School assistors for the summer will consist of a Sanday school assistant Pater
2 00 p. m.—The Pathon Bunday School assistant assistant less than haif an hour, followed by a Sanday until further notice.
All messured smars free at 10 minutes to 3.
Tomorrous The Fall of a Nation.
The Sanday Buttle of the Sunday afternoon are invited to spend their Sunday afternoon at Rethany If the Funday School building a overfull, there will be room in the church, where the argain will be played by our regular overfull, there will be some singers who will be to make a happy afternoon. No tickets are sold and no collection is taken. will help to make a happy afternoon. Ne tickets are wold and ne collection is taken.

I do p. in —Sermon by Rev. W. Edward Jog. dap. Assistant Paster.

Protestant Enispopal ST. JAMES'S 22d and Walnut att.
The Rev. JOHN MOCERIDGE, D. D., Sector
Soft a. m.—Holy Communion,
10 do a. m.—Holy Communion, with Sermon
4 do p. m.—Evening Prayer (plain).

4 00 p. m.—Evening Prayer (plain).
Weekdayse
Holy Communion:
Tuesday, 7:30 s. m.; Thursday, 10 s. m.
Friday, 8; Bartholomew's Day, 7:30 sm
10 s. m.
Strangers always welcome,
Church open all day. Sevenik Day Adventists

The United States In Bible Prophecy

RELIGIOUS BREVITIES

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—The New York Commercial, one of the oldest business and

